

J.C. ORCHESTRA OFFERS CONCERT TONITE

Finals On Wednesday End The 24th

Next Wednesday, final examinations will commence, lasting until Friday, January 24.

All classes will be required to have "blue books" for the exams. Students are requested to start buying their "blue books" immediately so they will not be left out in the final rush to the bookstore. Mr. G. Darwin Peavy indicates that there are an abundance of these books in the store, so there will be no reason for failure to show up in class without them.

Junior College President John B. Lemos advises students to commence looking at the main bulletin board where the exam schedule is posted, and to be sure when their individual final periods will come.

A complete schedule has been posted with recent changes. A schedule is also on page 2 of this week's Sentinel.

Attempt Being Made For Student Union

An encouraging statement concerning the possibility of a student union for Salinas Jayseers was announced this week.

According to Mr. J. B. Lemos, contact is being made with the Federal Public Housing Administration to purchase two "package" buildings. If these buildings can be obtained, they will be set up immediately in either the plowed lot directly in back of the Administration office between the music and science wings, or on the northwest part of the campus near the Little Theater.

The two buildings would be under jurisdiction of the Associated Students, and they would decide what was to be carried on in each building. A few suggestions offered by Mr. Lemos were that one of the two buildings would be a student lounge, and the other would contain a kitchen, snack bar, chairs, and tables.

Richard Werner Visits Jaysee

Mr. Richard J. Werner, former president of Salinas Junior College, visited the college on Monday, January 6, and ate lunch in the school cafeteria.

Mr. Werner was president of S.J.C. from 1937 to 1942, when he was commissioned a colonel in the army, serving in the European theater of war in the Army Military Government. He is now the manager of the California Dairy Council.

Deadline Of Soph Pix February 7

First sections of La Reata will go to the printers this month, Jeanne Stanbery, editor, says. Everything is coming along fine, except for the sophomore pictures, she also announces. There are still quite a few to be taken and the deadline is February 7. Sophomores are urged not to wait until the last minute.

Picture appointments may be made in these three ways: see Dolores Storment in Room 9, sign up on the main bulletin board, or call Cook's Studio. If appointments are made at J.C., make them several days early so arrangements can be made with Cook's.

Padded leatherette covers have been ordered from a Chicago firm specializing in bindings for various types of books. These covers are expected to arrive at the binders in San Francisco in a few weeks.

It is the intention of the editor, Jeanne Stanbery, to get the yearbook out before finals in June.

Art Class 12B Will Undergo Change

Mr. Leon Amyx, art instructor, announces that the class known as Art 12B, which has in the past dealt with technical decoration problems and design theory, is going to be changed considerably next semester.

The class will be open to any student who is interested, regardless of his or her former training in art. The group will meet Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 9 to 12 o'clock. One hour a week will be lecture while the rest of the time will be lab. The class will give the student three units.

Semester Sign-Up To Run 2 Days

Registration is here again; that strenuous and tiring job of switching classes, mapping out courses, and mostly just standing in line.

Mr. J. B. Lemos announced that registration will be held on January 27 and 28. Those that have gone through the strenuous business of registering will know how to get through fast and get the courses they want. The unfortunate beginners will struggle on for both days and will probably need an extra day.

January 27 is the day for those whose names come between "A" and "L," and the 28th takes care of those from "M" to "Z." The registration will last from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. on both days.

English placement exams will be given in the Little Theater on Saturday, January 25, 9 a.m., and the mathematic placement exams on Friday, January 24, 1 a.m.

All students who expect to register for any math, chemistry, physics, or engineering course, and who have not satisfactorily completed a course in mathematics in the jaysee during the fall semester are required to take the test.

PIANIST IN JC PERFORMANCE FEBRUARY 3

The second of the concert series will be held February 3, at 11 a.m.

Miss Laura Lee Luka, a remarkable, young, Hungarian-American pianist, will be the sole artist at the second concert.

Ski Refund May Be Obtained Upon Student Request

Because the skis which were to come from the War Assets Administration have been delayed, Lloyd Smith has announced that he will refund money to any of those who paid.

Lloyd further stated, in connection with the skis and equipment, however, that there is still a big possibility of the skis arriving. He said that it would be advisable if the students were to hold on a little longer.

Students who will not be here next semester, or who want their money may contact Lloyd Smith for refund.

THINKING OUT LOUD

By PEGGY ANNE TAYLOR

Acting in the position of editor of a college paper may at times be very aggravating and disconcerting, but in the long run, its compensations outweigh the difficulties in editing a college paper.

In the Salinas Junior College, the newspaper staff meets twice a week to edit The Sentinel. These meetings are on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Of these two, Tuesday is the big day. Enough copy must come in during the three-hour lab to fill the entire four pages.

After the copy is in, the editors go to work. Each page must be laid out to represent the final edition. Stories are measured, the inches are filled, heads are made up for each story, and then the pages are put together. The editor checks all four of the pages, and if the copy is lacking, it is his or her duty to fill them up with the late news.

Thursday, the editor picks up the proof at the printer and brings it to the Sentinel office to be proof-read by the different editors.

Also on Thursdays, the staff mails out copies of the previous week's paper to the various junior colleges in California. Feature material and advance copy is taken care of on this day.

Friday, all efforts are rewarded when The Sentinel falls into the hands of 600 jaysee students. The great amount of time that has preceded the editing is obscured under the satisfaction garnered by reading stories written by your staff and yourself when the paper is just off the press.

The insight into the many jobs of putting out a newspaper have just been enumerated because all of what has been mentioned is what Topper Arnett, your new editor-in-chief of The Panther Sentinel will be responsible for, as of Friday, February 7.

If student co-operation and activity is as great for him and the staff, as it has been for me, he also will feel, as I do now, that the tough job of being editor is an honorable and satisfying position.

NEWMAN MEETS IN ROOM 7 TODAY

Newman Club will hold a meeting today at 3 o'clock in room 27. A speaker will be present, and refreshments will be served. All Catholic students are urged to attend these meetings.

Spring Play Tryouts In Progress

Tryouts for the spring play, "January Thaw," which will be given by members of the dramatics class of the spring semester, will be held today from 12:30 p.m. to 1 p.m. in the Little Theater, and also Monday at the same time.

The dramatics class referred to above will include all those who are chosen for parts from the Faith Fraser, dramatics coach, has asked that there be a large turnout for the tryouts, but asked also that no one who will be unable to attend practices attend the tryouts.

The practice schedule for the play will be as follows: Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, from 12:30 to 1:00, Tuesday and Thursdays from 3:00 to 4:00 and Tuesday evenings from 7:00 to 10:00. During the last few weeks before the play, rehearsals will be more frequent, but will not interfere with finals, nor will the student receive cuts in classes.

Ski Club Plans Sierra Trip After Finals

The Ski Club of Salinas Junior College is going into the final stages of plans for their first ski trip of the season which will be made to Pine Crest Lodge above Sonora. However, the skiing will be done at Longbarn, a place a few miles above the lodge. The lodge will supply a truck to take the skiers up to the skiing runs.

At present, about 35 students have signed up for the trip. It is hoped that before the students leave a full 50 will be going on the excursion.

The group plan to leave Salinas next Thursday afternoon after the afternoon final. Those who have finals Friday will follow in other cars. The entire group will return Sunday night.

A meeting was held Wednesday in order to discuss further the plans for the trip. The emblems for the skiers were also discussed.

Dean of Women Lists Several Jobs

Miss June Handley wishes to inform students that several jobs are now available. Girls wishing jobs such as part-time or Saturday housework, caring for children in evenings, or living with a family and working for room and board plus salary may contact Miss Handley. There is also an excellent opening for a good secretary.

SIX SKI CLUB MEMBERS FROLIC

A few members of the Salinas Junior College Ski Club made a private and previous ski excursion to the snows of Mount Rose near Reno during the Christmas vacation. Beverly Staton, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Staton, who acted as chaperones, Lloyd Smith, Gene Grant, Bill Steinmetz, Howard Hushbeck and Roy Parker were the members of the party.

The group stayed at the Golden Hotel in Reno, and made daily trips up to the snows of Mount Rose, which were, according to Lloyd Smith, "really great for skiing." Lloyd also reported that no casualties were suffered by any of the group.

Prairie Printers Exhibit Works In Art Gallery

There is a new exhibit in the Art Gallery of Salinas Junior College. The Prairie Printers' Association of Wichita, Kansas, has sent some very beautiful and colorful productions to the college to be put on display here.

The artists of this association are professionals who do lithographs, etchings, and wood blocks to be printed and sold to the public. The productions hanging now in the gallery are all originals and they sell anywhere from $5 to $20 for duplicate prints.

Every year this association sends out examples which travel from school to school, and Salinas receives an exhibition every year. The Art Club is responsible for the present exhibit.

Surplus OPA Furniture Is Allotted to J.C.

Salinas Junior College received the furniture from the local O.P.A. office when it closed recently. The furniture includes several tables and chairs, two desks, and six file cabinets.

Materials are given a higher priority to schools by the Civilian Production Administration and are sold at a 95 per cent discount.

Rio del Mar was a "Winter Wonderland," December 20, with so very many lovely gowns. "Temptation!" . . . a tiny rhinestone choker was worn by Beverly Fontes to accentuate a strapless gown. The black velvet bodice was repeated in color by black lace borders encircling a full skirt of pink net.

JAYSEE PARTIES HIGHLIGHT
CHRISTMAS-NEW YEAR SEASON

Heading the social events for the holiday season were the several parties given and attended by Salinas Junior College Students.

Peggy Ann Taylor entertained approximately 22 of her friends on December 22 at her home. Card playing took up the first part of the evening, while later, entering into the Christmas spirit, the guests, loaded in several cars, went out to carol at the homes of several Salinas Junior College instructors.

Black, Heinzen Betrothal
Announced New Year's

Announcing her engagement to Mr. Loren Heinzen, Miss Bertha Black, J.C. sophomore, gave a "Class Reunion" New Year's Day at her Salinas home on Pajaro Street. Following the arrival of most of the guests, Bertha literally "let the cat out of the bag," and tied daintily around the kitten's neck was a ribbon with the names Loren and Bertha printed on the streamers.

Following the announcement, tea was served to the many junior college and former high school friends of Bertha. Mrs. Black and Mrs. Heinzen, mothers of the betrothed, served the girls.

Bertha and Loren are both graduates of Salinas Union High School, and while Loren served overseas with the army, Bertha entered junior college. The couple have known one another since grammar school days, but the romance began a few months ago.

Invitees were the Misses Pattie Weatherbie, who aided Bertha in receiving the guests, Ruthie Alarid, Sue Armstrong, Ruth Tisher, Alice Carr, Jackie Anderson, Edith Beck, Shirley Sutherland, Jeanne Stanbery, Pat Bell, Jean Emery, Margaret Trigiero, Louise Marshall, Louise Ferrini, Nancy Scott, Georgeanne Knowlton, Peggy Marble, Beverly Staton, Doris Tanner, Alyce Escobar, Ann Hazlett, Beverly Reeves, Betsy Volk, Catherine Winslow, and the Mesdames Robert Hyler (Joy Fontes), Roland Schmeekle (Wilma Ables), and Charles Patterson, Jr. (Patricia Glanville).

Guidotti, Rawitzer
Engagement Revealed

Miss Elynor Guidotti and Mr. Bud Rawitzer added their names to the engaged list over the Christmas holiday when Bud presented a diamond ring to Elynor for Christmas.

Claudia Fielding followed suit with a house party Thursday, December 26. Cards and other games were played by the 50 or more Jaysee and high school friends of Claudia.

Gloria Terrill, former Jaysee coed, and Ardeth Terrill, now attending Jaysee, gave a very successful party New Year's Eve. Cards, dancing, and games were enjoyed by the approximately 65 Jaysee, ex-Jaysee, high school, and "away at school" friends of the Terrill girls.

Kinder, Brown
United In Reno Rites

On December 26, Miss Alyce Kinder and Mr. Glenn Brown surprised everyone but members of their immediate families by eloping to Reno, Nevada. Accompanied by Mrs. Kinder, Alyce's mother, the couple arrived in Reno and were married at 3:45 p.m. in the offices of District Judge McKnight. The couple honeymooned in Reno and Southern California.

The bride, S.J.C. student, was attired in a watermelon-colored dress with black hat and accessories. She carried a white Bible and wore a gardenia corsage for the afternoon wedding.

The couple are now living in an apartment at 516-A Santa Maria, in Salinas. Mrs. Brown plans on continuing her studies until her graduation here in June. Her husband enters pilot school on January 10. As soon as he completes his pilot training, the newlyweds hope to move to South America where Mr. Brown will enter the flying field.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Brown will be remembered by many junior college students.

FEATURE

As a feature note to the weddings and engagements happening during the holiday season, Mr. Jack McCallum, Jaysee instructor, has this little piece to add.

During the holiday season, Mr. McCallum received a post card with a picture of the Courthouse in Reno, Nevada . . . that "quicker divorce, quicker marriage" place . . . on the front, while on the back the simple words . . . "The Smiths" . . . were written. Beverly Staton and Lloyd Smith were at Mount Rose and in Reno for skiing during the vacation.

Now, in order to clear everything up, Lloyd and Bev went up with Mr. and Mrs. Staton, and they came no closer to the courthouse . . . OR a justice of the peace, than the post card sent to Mr. McCallum.

Barbara Roddick Wed
To Robert Balsley

On Sunday, December 29, during a lovely candlelight ceremony held at the Northbrae Community Church in Berkeley, with the Reverend Charles Cox of Soledad officiating, Miss Barbara Jean Roddick and S.J.C. student Robert Balsley became husband and wife.

The former Miss Roddick is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alan L. Roddick, Jr., of Soledad and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arch B. Balsley of Salinas.

The bride was beautifully attired in a white satin gown with a long net train and finger-tip veil. She carried a gardenia bouquet and an old lace handkerchief belonging to her mother. Mr. Balsley was dressed in a double-breasted, navy-blue suit with a black bow tie.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Mary Balsley, sister of the groom, and also a student at S.J.C. Her gown was of powder blue satin. She carried pink carnations and wore a coronet of the same flower in her hair.

The groom's 7-year-old sister was the flower girl. She wore a pink satin gown with the same floral accessories as her sister.

Completing a "family affair," the brother of the bride, Mr. Alan Roddick, III, performed the duties of best man. Organ music for the ceremony was climaxed by the singing of "Always" and "Because."

The bride wore a going-away suit of black with pink accessories, as she and her husband left to enjoy a four-day honeymoon in San Francisco.

Patricia Sims
Honored at Bridal Shower Last Week

Miss Patricia Sims, Salinas Junior College sophomore, was honored at a miscellaneous bridal shower given recently by Misses Patricia Bell and Shirley Sutherland at the latter's home.

Miss Sims, who announced her engagement to former Salinas Junior College student Mr. Alan Stewart, will be married at the end of January. The wedding will be a formal one with Mrs. William Jenkins, sister of the bride-to-be, acting as matron of honor.

Those attending the shower, other than the honoree and the hostesses, were the Misses Sue Armstrong, Edith Beck, Lois Gunnell, Barbara Dungan, Norma Jo Ladra, Evelyn Jenkins, Bertha Black, and the Mesdames Bill Jenkins and Gilbert Wells.

FORMER COED,
CAL STUDENT
WEDDED

Miss Phyllis George, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip S. George and former Salinas Junior College student, was wedded to Mr. Lawrence Victor Brown, Jr., of Oakland at ceremonies held on December 22 in St. John's Chapel at Del Monte. Reverend Theodore Bell officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Maid of honor was Miss Maisie McCann while Misses Carol Mills and Gloria Carlson acted as bridesmaids. Best man was Mr. Arlin Raycraft of Oakland while Mr. Irvin Hall, Jr., Mr. Everett Smith of Oakland and Mr. Homer Davis of Santa Cruz ushered.

Jane Gail Atwood carried a white basket of rose petals in front of the bride who was attired in an ivory satin gown with a Spanish lace yolk embroidered with seed pearls. The gown had long sleeves, a train, and a crown of matching lace; and pearls held her fingertip veil of ivory tulle. The bride carried a white prayer book with an orchid marker, bouvardia and ribbon streamers.

The bridesmaids and maid of honor wore Grecian-draped gowns of rose, gold slippers, and crowns of violets. Their bouquets were of violets with matching ribbon streamers.

The little flower girl wore a long rose frock and a crown of violets.

The bride, wearing a brown suit with pink and brown accessories, left with her husband for a honeymoon at the Highland Inn in Carmel. They later returned to the home of the bride's parents for the holidays.

Westminster Club
Discusses Asilomar
Conference Today

Westminster Club officers and the members who attended the Asilomar conference are especially asked to attend a meeting today in room 15 at 3 o'clock. The meeting is an important follow-up of the conference held during the vacation. Mr. Roy Hohberger of Salinas Y.M.C.A. will lead a discussion.

Salinas J. C. Competing In Modesto Tourney

Salinas Junior College cagers are in Modesto for the week end where they are getting a taste of big-time J.C. competition in the annual Modesto Invitational Basketball tournament. The cream of the crop from both northern and southern California hoop circles, including such potent fives as Sacramento, Menlo, Compton, and Los Angeles City College, all are vying for top honors in the elimination tournament.

Coach Ed Adams' hoopsters are getting a fairly good idea as to the type of teams they will be pitted against during the course of the still young season.

The Panthers will tentatively put their strongest "combo" on the floor in today's game. This should include at forwards, Ron Rico and Dean Dillingham; center, Jim Blinkenberg; guards, Tom Perez and Irving Parker.

Sixteen teams are entered in the tourney: Sacramento, Reedley, Menlo, Glendale, Santa Ana, Yuba, Pasadena, San Francisco, Compton, Placer, San Mateo, L.A.C.C., Fullerton, Santa Rosa, Salinas and Modesto.

SPORTS SHORTS

By NORMAN NUCK

West Coast football enthusiasts received a severe setback on New Year's Day when Buddy Young led his Illinois colleagues to a 45-14 win over the West's top team, U.C.L.A.

Many people throughout the nation voiced criticism when the Coast Conference voted a five-year tie-up with the Big Nine Conference thus shutting Army's great grid aggregation out of the Rose Bowl. Illinois, although conference champs, was considered only second best in the Big Nine, falling behind Michigan, who was rated by most experts as the Western Conference's best.

People are still asking the question, "What would have happened had Army played in the Rose Bowl?" There are many and varied answers to this question but that is just one more of the many unanswered questions in the files of sports.

One sure deduction is derived from the game, and that is that the West Coast football will have to make a terrific comeback to get back into the national football picture.

Residents of the Monterey Peninsula and surrounding cities are in for a big treat during the coming week end. The famed

HARLEM FIVE MEETS HOUSE OF DAVID HERE

Two of the most colorful basketball teams on earth will make their appearance in Salinas J.C. Gym on January 27, at 8:30 p.m., when the Harlem Globe Trotters match court tricks with the classy House of David outfit. The Hawaiian All-Stars will meet the Kansas City All-Stars in the preliminary game at 7:30.

The Globe Trotters, barnstorming masters of the trick pass and unerring shot, have played basketball throughout the country and in some locales far removed from the United States. The Globe Trotters boast 2,730 victories in 2,952 games up to the start of the present season.

On the other hand, the House of David, bearded wonders of the cage world, have become equally famous throughout the nation with their fast, effective brand of basketball.

Tickets will go on sale shortly, with a record distribution anticipated.

Girls' Basketball Play Under Way; Finals Next Week

Girls' basketball got under way Monday, January 6, with Ruth McBride's Tumbleweeds coming up with top honors over Louise Marshall's Sadsacks, 16-10. Games were played Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of this week, with the finals being scheduled for Monday and Tuesday of next week.

With seven teams participating in this tournament, the games were played during the noon hour as well as during class periods.

Jaysee Cagers Cop Pair of Victories

Two cage games were played over the Christmas vacation by the Salinas J.C. Panthers, with the locals emerging victorious on both occasions as they swamped Hollister J.C. on December 20, 58-17, and smashed the Santa Cruz Sportsmen on December 27, 28-29.

Jim Blinkenberg led the Panthers to an easy victory over Hollister by pouring in 12 points, 10 of which came in the first half. Jim DeLorimier, reserve guard, came into his own by dropping 11 points through the hoop to give him a close second in the night's scoring.

In the Santa Cruz Sportsman game, Blinkenberg repeated his scoring antics by topping everyone in the scoring column with 12 points once again. Ron Rico was second high scorer with 7. Salinas led at half-time, 28 to 15.

Panther Nine Win Three Games During Holidays

The recently concluded Christmas vacation proved most successful for Coach Dominic Campolo and his Panther diamond aces as they were all victorious in their tilts with the Monterey Legion, Carmel Legion, and Stolte Construction nines. The three wins put the Panthers in the undisputed league lead.

With the addition of Jim Prien to the mound staff, the locals had little trouble in downing the Monterey Legionnaires, 9-4. Prien lost control in several stages of the game but was always able to rally and check the opposition before serious damage could be done. Charlie Mornard led the jaysee batsmen with a pair of base knocks.

The Panthers once more proved their superiority over the Carmel team as they emerged with a thrilling 5-3 win over the village nine. The locals have proved the undoing of the Carmel team as they have handed them their only losses. Prien turned in a neat job on the mound while Mornard once more took batting honors.

Revenge was the keynote in the Panthers' 2-1 decision over the Stolte Construction team. In their last encounter the builders had handed the locals their lone defeat. The Stolte nine once more provided an unknown hurler who did yeoman duty and matched Topper Arnett pitch for pitch before going down to defeat. Each pitcher allowed only four hits.

CASABA SKETCHES

RON RICO

Rico, a rangy 6-foot, 4-inch forward, played his high school ball at Monterey high where he was twice unanimously selected all-C.C.A.L. forward while leading the Toreadors to two league titles during his junior and seniors years. Ron was a regular performer on last year's varsity.

JIM BLINKENBERG

The number one center on this year's varsity is big 6-foot, 2-inch Jim Blinkenberg. Jim is a graduate of Watsonville high where he led the Wildcats to the C.C.A.L. title during last year's play.

TOM PEREZ

Tom is one of the three Monterey boys who hold down starting positions on this year's first team. Speed and a brilliant floor game are the chief talents of this scrappy 5-foot, 10-inch guard.

Irving Parker Elected Captain Of Panther Five

This week, Irving Parker of Santa Barbara was elected captain of this year's varsity basketball team in a vote taken among team members.

Parker was a member of the sharp 1941-42 Panther cage team, and racked up 195 points during season play. In addition to heading the cage squad, Parker occupies the shortstop position on Coach Dominic Campolo's diamond nine.

INTRAMURAL JUAN'S ROLL OVER CANEPA

The curtain was raised on the newly formed intramural basketball league on Monday afternoon when the power-laden Don Juans swarmed over Canepa's quintet, 57-13.

The Juans served notice to the rest of the league that they will be strong contenders for top honors as a result of their lopsided win over the Canepa Squad. All members of the Juans' quintet had the range and, using a smoothly operating fast break, seemed to score at will. Top scoring honors for the tilt went to Don Prince who rang up 16 markers for the winners, closely followed by Bill Thacker with 14. Others competing for the winners were Norman Nuck 9, Gene Ruble 2, Jim Gillette 8, and Nick Srsen 8. Canepa with 6 and Erickson with 5 took top honors for the losers.

All schedules and game arrangements are being handled by Mr. G. Darwin Peavy. The league is divided into two divisions, the American and National, with a playoff in the offing for the two top teams. American League entries include Don Juans, Work's Lumberjacks, Ramponi's Ramblers, Mitts' Wolves, and Canepa's Apple-pickers. National League teams are Burns' Bums, Smith's Levelers, and a team headed by Juster and Grant.
